

The Department of French and Italian's Statement on Diversity:

Inspired by the University's nondiscrimination policy, we, the members of the Department of French and Italian, embrace a notion of intellectual community enriched and enhanced by diversity in all forms. We appreciate that identities are complex, intersectional, and dynamic, in the classroom, in course materials, and in French- and Italian-speaking communities beyond campus. Diversity provides the benefit of allowing multiple perspectives inside and outside of the classroom. We expect that all members of our learning community commit to 1) creating an intellectual space where students are free to express their opinions in ways that are respectful of others and their perspectives, 2) engaging in the process of questioning and revising their own identities and perspectives, and 3) understanding the ways in which our identities position us within the classroom.
